doesn't know what his problem is and neither do I.

Please don't think we are crazy, but we'd like to know if a marriage could work if the husband stays home and keeps house and the wife earns the living? My fiancé likes housekeeping and is good at it. I hate it.

I know this is unusual, but I don't care what people say and neither does he. May we have your frank opinion?—OFF BEATERS

Dear Off: The conventional role of the male in our society is that of breadwinner. The female is the homemaker. If you think you can turn this topsy-turvy, try it, but I don't think it will work.

Your best bet is to find out why he can't hold a job—and correct it.

Are you tempted to smoke because the crowd does? If so, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Teenage Smoking," enclosing with your request 10 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope. Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope. (C) 1962, Field Enterprises, Inc.

P T A ACTIVITIES

TORRANCE COUNCIL.

Mrs. Leonard Hummel, president Thirty-Third District CCPT, will welcome Dr. Albert Karr of El Camino College as guest speaker for the Fall Conference convening at Montebello Sr. High School Oct. 25, 9:45 a.m. Dr. Karr is a professor of American History and International Relations at El Camino and lectures on Colonial History at Long Beach State. Last year he toured the civil war battlefields on a research sabbatical. He was active in naval intelligence in World War II as a translator of Japanese documents and for prisoners. He will speak on "Our Heritage," the first phase of the 1962-63 theme "Our Heritage—American Family, American Faith, American Freedom." The program committee includes: Mmes. Guy Moothart, chairman; R. D. Macy, R. A. Ashby, Jules Ross of Hawthorne, and Eugene Laxton, Torrance. The membership will be welcomed by Mrs. Sam Arakelian, Montebello Council president; Robert S. Heaman, principal of Montebello Sr. High; Dr. John C. Whinnery, Supt. Montebello Unified School District; and Dr. C. C. Trillingham, Supt. of Schools of Los Angeles County. Mrs. H. Earl Pemberton will present a film "The Pledge of Allegiance is Our Heritage." The 1962-64 Thirty-Third District board will be introduced by Mrs. Hummel. Conference music will be presented by Mrs. Lois Williams. Mrs. C. A. Wiggins of Long Beach, Fall conference chairman and Mrs. Guy Moothart of Lynwood, program chairman, are in charge of arrangements. Route maps and parking information may be secured from council presidents. Conference committee included Miss Gertrude Blackstock, La Mirada; Mrs. Donald J. Baker, Long Beach, hostesses; Mrs. Jack Campbell, Inglewood, registration; and Mrs. Cecil Davey, Torrance, music.

Theme for this month's meeting is "Confidential File." Guest speaker will be S. E. Waldrip, assistant superintendent of Torrance Unified Schools. His topic will be "Where Business Management Fits into the Educational Program." Also there will be a skit "Mag-net" presented by Mrs. J. W. Jones, magazine chairman. The second of the two-shot Flu clinic series will be held from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. on Oct. 26.

COLUMBIA

Columbia PTA will sponsor their second fund raising event of the year, in the form of a Rummage Sale. Mrs. Norman Appel, ways and means chairman, has announced the sale will be held at the "Hitch Rack Rummage Center," 16536 Hawthorne Blvd., Lawndale. The sale will run for two days, Monday and Tuesday, Oct. 22 and 23, the hours 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on both days.

RIVIERA

Riviera PTA will hold the annual Halloween carnival with the theme "Pirates Cove" on Saturday, Oct. 27, at the school playground from 10:30 until 3 p.m. The invading pirates and costumed spooks will gather to parade on the playground at 10 a.m. The winner of a "Pieces of Eight" treasure will be drawn by an elected King and Queen of the carnival. The royal couple will then officially open the "Pirates' Cove" carnival by directing the sounding of trumpets and freeing clouds of balloons. A special pirates' mess including hot pizza, homemade cookies and cake as well as hot and cold drinks will be offered to the invaders. There will be magic shows, games, stunts, movies, dancing, and booths for gifts, white elephants, baked goods, and souvenirs. The rattling bones and ghostly screams in the haunted house promise to raise the eye-patch on Captain Kidd himself. Ways and Means Chairman Mrs. E. H. Scheffers is directing ticket sales at the school gate from Oct. 24 through 26 from 8:30 to 10 a.m. as well as during the carnival.
